A Message from the President, Mr Don Lethbridge

On behalf of the Taroom Show Society, competitors and exhibitors, I would like to thank all sponsors and trophy donors of the 2018 show. Without your support we could not run such a successful and well supported show. Some sponsors have been contributing to the show for over 10 years, whilst some are joining us for the first time this year. We thank-you for your donation no matter how big or small. For 113 years our show has been delivering positive social and economic impacts to our community. We hope that this continues for years to come. Thank you all.

SHOW OFFICE

The Show Office will be located at the New Hope Group Office in Yaldwyn St between the Arcade and the Police Station

We will be in attendance from
Wednesday 2nd May until Friday 4th May 9 am - 5pm
& Saturday 5th May 9am—12pm

Then Sunday and during the Show at the Showgrounds Show Office, Cranmer Street Taroom.

Sunday: 7.30am- 5.00pm

Monday: 7.00am - 5.00pm

RULES FOR STOCK FROM QUEENSLAND CATTLE TICK INFECTED, CONTROL AND FREE ZONES MUST BE ADHERED TO

NLIS – ALL CATTLE MUST BE EAR TAGGED WITH NLIS DEVICES

The Taroom Showgrounds is classified as a CATTLE TICK FREE ZONE.

SHOWGROUNDS PIC: QETR0733

For spraying, dipping & inspection bookings, please phone D & L Stuart – to make arrangements. Minimum of 48 hours notice required. Phone: 4628 6236, Mobile 0428 286 235.

For all low risk carriers (Camelids, Equines, goats and sheep) the requirement is:

- All stock are to complete a manual inspection (this can be completed by any competent person) before entering the free zone
- Be accompanied with a movement record (new term for waybill).

They do not require a biosecurity certificate issued by an accredited certifier.

Please see link for manual inspection procedure:

https://www.daf.qld.gov.au/_data/assets/pdf_file/0020/504317/Procedure-manual-inspection-low-risk-cattle-tick-carriers.pdf

For high risk carriers (bison, buffalo, cattle, and deer) from infested zone the requirement is:

- A manual inspection and return to the origin within 96hrs (4days) from the date of inspection and not to unloaded at any other place (e.g. inspection Thursday, the animals must return to origin by Monday); OR
- A manual inspection and chemical treatment

For high risk carriers (bison, buffalo, cattle, and deer) from infested land (this is cattle tick infested property in the free zone) the requirement is:

- A manual inspection and chemical treatment

All high risk carrier movements from infested zone or land to tick free zone require a biosecurity certificate issued by an accredited certifier.

All movements must be accompanied by a movement record.

All stock movements require a movement record and a copy must be kept by the event holder for two years.

For more information regarding movement records see below:

<https://www.business.qld.gov.au/industries/farms-fishing-forestry/agriculture/livestock/livestock-movement/legal-requirements/movement-records>

As usual all cattle, sheep, and goats require a NLIS device and this movement needs to be reported to the NLIS database. See link below:

JUVENILE COOKERY

Mrs Deidre Jounquay Trophy, for junior novelty cake.

Mrs Jessica Oliver Trophy, for best marble cake, junior & senior

Fenwin Pastoral Trophies, for best Anzac biscuits—senior and best jam drops—junior

A FEATURE CAKE MUST BE COOKED TO THE FOLLOWING RECIPE.

MARBLE CAKE:

Ingredients: 185g sugar, 1 ½ cups SR flour, 1/2 cup milk, few drops vanilla essence, 125g butter, 2 eggs, 2 tsp. cocoa, hot water, pinch salt.

Method Place all ingredients, except cocoa and water, into a small mixing bowl and mix at low speed until combined. Then beat on high for 4 minutes.

Divide mixture into three, colour one pink, one chocolate (by combining cocoa and water and mixing to form a paste) and leave one white.

Line the bottom of a 20cm round tin.

Place mixture in alternate spoonfulls and run a knife through mixture to give a marbled effect.

Bake in a 190 oven for 25 to 40 minutes or until cooked.

When cool, ice on top with pale pink icing.
